Polinomic Cleansing

First things first. I do not believe that the moon landing was faked, or that the earth is flat or that 9/11 was an inside job. I do however believe that ethnic cleansing has and is being done in countries around the world.

I do believe that we are in the midst of something dually evil. The Covid-19 virus is in fact a pandemic, and little is being done on the Federal level to stop it.

But you say WAIT, aren't the rich are losing money on Wall Street?

They rarely do. They will work within their insider networks to manipulate and time out the bottoming of the market and then they will use their generational inheritance to BUY bigtime. This crisis also helps clear some of the deadwood out of the stock market, from time to time. 1987, 2008, 2020. The corporate pigs are busy lining up at the government handout trough. The politicians are busy insider trading on stocks, and refusing to put controls on price gouging so the pigs can profit from this crisis. Meanwhile the states have to compete against each other and have driven the prices of protective masks from .65 to $7.

The TV pundits talk about how our Federal politicians just do not understand the scope of the problem, which causes them to take a three-day weekend in the middle of a crisis. Congress has a long history of inbred stupidity, and malfeasance but it is not that stupid. More testing creates higher numbers of the infected, right?

- The Intelligence agencies warned about a pandemic in 2015
- The outgoing Obama admin walked the incoming Trump admin through what to do about an Asian pandemic in 2017. This included exactly what to do during the lead-time we would have.
- The Presidents daily security briefings warned him about this in 2018 and 2019.
- The Trump admin explicitly dismantled the office in the White House, setup by the Obama admin, that was tasked with preparing for exactly this kind of a risk.
- Trump's budget proposals have consistently called for reduced funding for the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, but Congress hasn't enacted those cuts
- Trump proposed cutting National Institute of Health funding, , but Congress hasn't enacted those cuts

I propose that this appearance of incompetence is both purposeful and intentional.

Experts are saying that between 70 and 150 million Americans will become infected. Based on what we now know, it is possible that 1 to 10 million Americans will die from this over the next two years. No doubt that the majority of the casualties of this pandemic will be in the higher population centers on both coasts. But oh well, these areas are a hot bed of immigrants and Democrats, and Romney said 40% of the population are takers anyway, right?

Some of what remains of the middle class would no doubt be collateral damage, but many of them are also Democrats, right? Where will history rate Trump among the most murderous dictators?

Mao (China)	40 million
Stalin (Soviet Union)	20 million
Hitler (Nazi Germany)	12 million
Leopold II (Belgium)	10 million
Tojo (Japan)	5 million
Trump (USA)	? million

Do you really think this would be outside the moral boundaries of Trump and the Republicans?

Have you seen any Republican moral boundaries in the past three years?

Their hands are already clearly stained with human pain, suffering, and death in so many ways.

Trump sees everything and everyone in terms of his own benefit, either personal or political.

Why are the Republicans trying so hard to kill the ACA? To prevent Medicare for all?

This is Political and Economic Cleansing, which I call Polinomic murder.
